COVID-19: Highlights and Situation Overview

- Worldwide, there have been over 106.8 million cases and more than 2.3 million deaths attributed to COVID-19.
- An expert from the World Health Organization on Tuesday rejected the possibility of the novel coronavirus having accidentally leaked from a controversial laboratory in the central Chinese city of Wuhan, saying it is "extremely unlikely." According to the leader of the WHO team during a press conference after its joint investigation with Chinese experts, the virus most probably jumped to humans via an intermediary species. He said that the findings suggest that the laboratory incidents hypothesis is extremely unlikely to explain the introduction of the virus to the human population.
- Ho Chi Minh City authorities announced the closure of all non-essential businesses and entertainment activities such as bars, beauty salons, gyms, karaoke parlors, night clubs, massage parlors, and movie theaters from February 9 until further notice in response to the city recording more than 25 cases in a single day. In addition, religious gatherings will be limited to 20 people. However, gas stations, retail stores, pharmacies and medical facilities will remain open but with strict preventive measures. The government has changed the quarantine period back to 14 days after briefly increasing it to 21 days. The Ministry of Health clarified that while the UK strain of the virus had a faster onset time, its incubation period remains two weeks.

Vaccine Update

- According to the minister overseeing Japan's vaccination programme on Tuesday (February 9), the European Union has approved the first shipment of Pfizer's COVID-19 vaccine to Japan as the country aims to start vaccination by mid-February. The Japanese government plans to vaccinate medical workers first, then the elderly, followed by people with health conditions and those working at elderly care facilities. Japan has signed contracts to procure 314 million doses of COVID-19 vaccines from AstraZeneca, Moderna and Pfizer, enough for 157 million people.
- Indonesia started vaccinating its elderly medical workers against the coronavirus for the first time after initial uncertainty over whether seniors would be prioritized in a country battling one of Asia's worst epidemics. Indonesia's food and drug agency recently approved use of the Sinovac Biotech vaccine for the elderly, potentially changing the country's strategy to focus on the working population. As part of phase one of a mass vaccination campaign, Indonesia is hoping to have inoculated nearly 1.5 million medical workers by February 21.

Travel Advisories (new update/s)

- Indonesia: Indonesia extended the closure of its borders to foreigners for another two weeks until February 22. The spokesman for the national COVID-19 task force told a press conference that exceptions, however, will be granted for long-term residents, those from countries who have travel corridor arrangements with Indonesia and those who get special permission from Indonesian ministries or institutions. Health protocols shall be implemented still including a five-day quarantine. Visiting government officials from the level of minister and above traveling with official or diplomatic visas, as well as chiefs of the foreign missions in Indonesia and their families, are excluded from quarantine.
