COVID-19: Highlights and Situation Overview

Global Update

- Worldwide, there have been over 168 million cases and more than 3 million deaths attributed to COVID-19.

Regional Update

- Malaysia on Tuesday (May 25) reported a record 7,289 new COVID-19 cases, the highest number of new daily infections in the country since the start of the pandemic. This is also the first time the number of new cases has breached the 7,000 mark. The Klang Valley area accounted for more than a third of the new cases: Selangor had 2,642 while Kuala Lumpur reported 604. Neighbouring states Negeri Sembilan and Pahang had 410 and 211 respectively. Johor reported 664 new cases while Penang had 380. Fifteen more clusters were also identified, taking the total number of active clusters in the country to 577. Health Director-General warned that Malaysia's daily COVID-19 cases are following an "exponential trend".
- Vietnam widened lockdown measures in its industrialized north on Tuesday (May 25) to combat its biggest COVID-19 outbreak so far. The health ministry announced 457 new COVID-19 infections on Tuesday, the biggest jump since the 190 cases seen on May 16. Bac Ninh and Bac Giang are the epicentre of the new outbreak that has infected more than 2,800 people since late April, including hundreds of factory workers. Authorities say the outbreak, which accounts for nearly half of Vietnam's overall cases, has spread to more than 30 of its 63 cities and provinces. The capital Hanoi on Tuesday shut down restaurants and banned gatherings at public areas, including physical exercises in parks. Hanoi has recorded 220 cases since late April. Most of cases on Tuesday were at factories in Bac Giang, where authorities said testing had been ramped up and all workers' dormitories put in isolation.
- Thailand's Cabinet approved extension of Emergency Decree. The Emergency Decree enacted to attempt to curb the spread of COVID-19 in Thailand has just been extended for 2 more months, until the end of July. Cabinet ministers met yesterday (May 25) to determine the future of the decree and agreed to extend it from June 1 to July 31. The cabinet also approved funding to address COVID-19 in the Thai prison system. A government spokesperson confirmed the extension, citing that the Emergency Decree is necessary to facilitate agency cooperation in fighting COVID-19. The Emergency Decree empowers various health, policy, and enforcement agencies to coordinate together on anti-COVID-19 measures as well as allocate public health resources, some of which are in short supply. The extension allows the government to continue COVID-19 control and prevention measures, and reduce the risk of death from the virus. It also provides crucial economic support to aid people struggling from financial hardship and stabilize the country.

Vaccine Update

- As of May 22, according to the World Health Organization (WHO), more than 1.6 billion doses of COVID-19 vaccine have been delivered worldwide. However, while close to 100% of Gibraltar's population have been fully vaccinated, at least a dozen countries are still waiting to receive their first doses of vaccine, while at least two (i.e., Madagascar and Tanzania) have openly rejected enrolling in any vaccination program. The majority of the countries without vaccine access are across Africa and include Chad, Burkina Faso, Burundi, and Eritrea. However, there are some other nations such as Haiti and some Pacific Islands that have also not yet received any vaccines.

While the total of confirmed COVID-19 cases among these countries is relatively low compared with the world's hot spots, officially-reported cases are likely an undercount, due to their fragile healthcare systems along with stretched resources for laboratory testing, and limited capacity for genome sequencing to detect emerging variants.

- Thailand will extend the gap between the first and second doses of AstraZeneca's COVID-19 vaccine to 16 weeks, in an effort to inoculate more people faster. The plan follows a similar decision by Spain to stretch the gap between two AstraZeneca doses to 16 weeks, which is beyond the 12 weeks maximum interval approved by the European Medicines Agency. The national vaccine strategy relies almost entirely on AstraZeneca vaccines, the majority of which it said would be produced by a local firm owned by the country's king. Authorities said that the first 6 million of 61 million doses are expected to be available in June. Thailand has so far administered at least one dose of a COVID-19 vaccine to 1.94 million people, including healthcare and frontline workers, using AstraZeneca and Sinovac vaccines.
- Vietnam received the fourth batch of the Oxford-AstraZeneca vaccine with 288,000 doses on Tuesday (May 25) night. This is in addition to two shipments of 811,200 doses and 1,682,400 doses on April 1 and May 15 out of the 30 million that the global vaccine sharing initiative COVAX has committed to provide for Vietnam by 2021. To date the country has nearly 2.9 million doses of AstraZeneca (plus 1,000 doses of Sputnik V vaccine donated by Russia) for use in its national vaccination drive for a population of nearly 96 million. According to the Wednesday report from the National Expanded Programme on Immunisation, 1,034,072 doses have been administered primarily for frontline workers, contact tracers, medical staff, military and police units since the drive started on March 8. However, only 28,503 people have received both doses. In addition to 60 million vaccine doses of AstraZeneca from commercial orders and COVAX, the Health Ministry said it is in talks with COVAX for an additional 9 million doses via a cost-sharing mechanism, as well as with Pfizer/BioNTech for some 31 million doses within this year. This means that around 110 million doses will be secured by the end of 2021, but this still falls short of the 150 million doses needed to inoculate 75% of the population.
