

COVID-19: Highlights and Situation Overview

Global Update

- Worldwide, there have been over 186 million cases and over 4 million deaths attributed to COVID-19.

Regional Update

- Malaysia reported 8,868 new COVID-19 cases on Thursday (July 8), the country's second highest daily case count since the start of the pandemic. More than half of the new infections were reported in the Klang Valley area with 4,152 in Selangor and 1,133 in the capital Kuala Lumpur. A further 897 cases were found in neighboring state Negeri Sembilan. Despite the extended lockdown, cases have been on the uptrend this week with new daily COVID-19 cases staying above the 6,000-mark. The country's health system also continues to be overwhelmed by the increasing number of critically ill patients, with many victims also succumbing to the coronavirus before they can seek medical attention. Health ministry data showed that there were 670 "brought in dead" cases from January to July 2. As of July 8, Malaysia reported a total of 808,658 COVID-19 cases, of which 77,275 were active or infectious.
- Thailand's health ministry said on Thursday (July 8) it had proposed new travel curbs and tighter restrictions in high-risk areas to contain COVID-19 cases. The health ministry has proposed measures to limit people's travel from their home and a curb on inter-provincial travel as well as closing non-essential venues and areas that attract crowds. The rules would be in place for 14 days and would cover the Bangkok metropolitan area and "buffer zones". However, Prime Minister ss that is due to consider the new restrictions in a meeting on Friday. Currently, Thailand has in place measures in "high-risk zones", including Bangkok and surrounding provinces, to close malls early and prohibit dining at restaurants, but they have not been able to halt an acceleration of infections in the past month. The health ministry has also been expanding hospital capacity in Bangkok including a plan to convert the newly built terminal at Suvarnabhumi International Airport into a field hospital with 5,000 beds by August. Thailand's COVID-19 task force reported on Thursday (July 8) 7,058 new COVID-19 cases, taking the total number in the country to 308,230. The country has recorded 2,462 fatalities since the pandemic started last year.
- Myanmar authorities announced stay-at-home measures in parts of commercial capital Yangon on Wednesday (Jul 7), as the country reported its highest daily COVID-19 cases in months. Starting July 8, a ban on more than one person leaving home for non-medical reasons will apply to 10 Yangon townships but those travelling to government jobs are exempted.
- Vietnam's Ho Chi Minh City will impose another 15 days of social distancing under the stricter Directive 16 measures from July 9. Under Directive 16, all non-essential businesses and services are banned, while public transport including buses and taxis are suspended. The gathering of more than two people is banned and people are required to stay home unless for food, medicine, or emergencies.
- Singapore Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA) reported that Singapore government sent medical supplies and equipment to Indonesia on Friday (July 9). According to the ministry, the Singapore Government has provided an initial tranche of medical supplies and equipment including oxygen cylinders, oxygen concentrators, ventilators and personal protective equipment such as surgical and N95 masks, gloves, and gowns to support Indonesia's efforts to combat the COVID-19 pandemic. Indonesia on Thursday (July 8) has reported a new daily record of 38,391 new COVID-19 cases and 852 more fatalities from the disease, its second-highest daily fatality count since the pandemic.

Vaccine Update

- Pfizer's scientist plans to ask US regulators to authorize a booster dose of its COVID-19 vaccine within the next month based on evidence of greater risk of reinfection six months after inoculation and due to the spread of the highly contagious Delta variant. According to the drugmaker, Pfizer and BioNTech are preparing to start clinical trials by August on a version of their COVID-19 vaccine targeting the Delta variant amid fears that existing jabs will offer less protection against the strain spreading easily. The Delta variant was first detected in India in December and has since swept across Europe and the US, leading to a surge in COVID-19 cases, especially among unvaccinated people. Delta is now the dominant strain in the US, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and accounts for more than 90% of new COVID-19 cases in the United Kingdom.
- Malaysia's Special Committee on COVID-19 Vaccine Supply (JKJAV) reported on July 8 that the country has administered 376,909 COVID-19 vaccine doses on Thursday (July 8) alone, bringing the total administered vaccine to 10,413,270 since the National COVID-19 Immunisation Programme began. JKJAV said that 222,927 people received their first dose of a vaccine on Thursday while a further 153,982 completed their inoculation by receiving the second dose.

Travel Advisories (new update/s)

- Vietnam: Under Directive 16, transport authorities agreed to temporarily suspend flights between Phu Quoc and Ho Chi Minh City, while anyone coming or returning from Ho Chi Minh City will be required to undergo home quarantine for seven days as per the health ministry.
